Amid the feeling of well-being brought on by the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games, Istead and Ifield Harriers was founded by a breakaway group from Gravesend Road Runners.

The club was the brainchild of Phil and Jan Warren and Gary and Tania Ramsey (now Yates), 3 of whom had previously run for Gravesend Road Runners. Jan Warren was not a runner but was the secretary for several years and made exceedingly good cakes for NDR runners. Fortunately, the tradition of cakes at NDR has been continued.

People often ask, 'Where does the name come from?'. Well quite simply one couple lived in Istead Rise and the other lived at Ifield. The club colours were chosen when the four of them were in the Lake District on holiday and completed a couple of races whilst there. Tania's waterproof jacket was purple and black and it was decided the new club vests would look good in those colours, although it then proved difficult to find a manufacturer of running vests in those colours. There was no call apparently!

A leaflet drop on car windscreens at the local leisure centres invited interested individuals to attend a meeting, and the club was formed. Earliest members still with the club today are Tania Yates, Richard Storr, Barry Bell, Mel Moore, Jackie Day, Martin Charlton and Peter Burton. Other long-standing members, still with Istead include Peter Gibson (from 1993) Andrew Archer, Susan Holland, and Lesley Green (Archer) all from 1994. Initially the club ran from the Istead Rise Community Centre and the hill reps on Arcadia Road are still remembered (fondly?) by those who tackled them. Ten reps up and down there were called 10 Arcadians.

A monthly newsletter was quickly instigated, initially handwritten, photocopied and circulated by hand and by post. Editors of this illustrious periodical have included Richard Storr, Peter Gibson, Lynne Champion and Helen Fooks. Footnotes eventually became an on-line publication in 2008 and ceased around Spring 2014 when Facebook made it obsolete.

The 2nd newsletter of September 1992 shows 26 members; club colours being officially registered and potential social activities of a BBQ and a quiz night. It was also decided to hold a competition amongst the members to name the newsletter.

The 3rd newsletter of October 1992 reminds all runners that 'the club colours include black shorts as stipulated in the club rules'. This was to be a recurring theme over the next few months and years. What naughty person was wearing outlandishly coloured shorts? Even today there are some very questionable colours accompanying the purple and black.

The membership had risen to 31 (23 men and 8 ladies) and the ballot for the club places in the London Marathon by rejection slips was introduced.

As early as November 1992 there were initial discussions about starting a Grand Prix of events and a club handicap. A cross country league, originally called Today's Runner after the magazine promoting it, had been set up on Sundays with eight other clubs. We now know this as the Kent Fitness League (see results tables).

Four ladies training sessions a week were offered.

Monday 3-4 miles steady run

Wednesday Club night

Friday 'Quality run, warm up 1 mile + 3 miles best possible pace, 1 mile warm down.
Or 5 miles with 4x 3mins fast 3 mins slow in between

Sunday 8-10 slow, easy pace

Total approx. 25 miles weekly

Ladies captain Tania Ramsey was a hard task master!

The November newsletter (No.4) was now christened Footnotes, the competition having been won by Barry Bell (or possibly Joyce in the background). By December a club badge was being discussed with the help of Gravesham Historical Society, and the Christmas Pudding Run was created for Boxing Day around the streets of Istead Rise for all 'wives, husbands, children, cousins and aunts etc.'.

1993 proved to be a big year in the development of the club. By February the club is in full swing with 45 first claim members.

Start of a race from Istead Commuunity Centre

Footnotes has a wonderful quote that still holds today. "The strength of any club is in the membership and the commitment of the membership in supporting the club in activities". This was said because 50% of the club had turned out for the January cross country race. There were discussions about whether a junior section was viable. Interest was shown by youngsters but there was no-one to organise it.

A club Grand Prix comprising of 8 runs, 5 to qualify, was discussed and instigated to run April – April.

The club was also asked for the first time to provide a team of 20 to assist with a London Marathon baggage bus, and the club was asked to help with the North Downs Run providing marshals for the main race and the fun run, and with registration. Peter Burton remembers that in the early days of the London Marathon, each person helping received a guaranteed entry for the following year! It was very quickly reduced to just one place for the club.

A contribution to Footnotes, written in July 1993 by Michael Denton, just over a year after he joined said,

"Right from the beginning it seemed that Istead and Ifield Harriers was the club for me. No signs of cliques or elitist ability groups that had characterised other sporting clubs I had joined in the past.....So many different things enjoyed in the last year. One final thought sprang to mind. Having achieved so much as a club in one year (as a happy and successful club) the story of Istead and Ifield Harriers was probably only just beginning."

In October, the running stickman makes a first appearance and members are asked to suggest a name for him. By January 1994 the stickman is named Spike by Joyce Bell (not Spud as he had been called in the interim).

The wearing of black shorts is again mentioned with the caution that 'failure to wear in a race could result in the individual or team being disqualified'.

The club was also approached to organise and stage a 10k race in the autumn of 1994 and a sub committee was formed.

At the 1995 AGM Robin Manley suggested introducing a handicap race. Work was begun to start it on the lighter evenings in the summer. This eventually became a winter event in 1999. The first handicap organised by Robin was a two-and-a-half-mile course around the roads of Istead Rise with Jan Warren helping to record the times. When the club moved to Cascades in 2000 the event continued with Lesley Archer helping Robin to record the times. 2013 saw Sally George and Katie Burgess helping and in 2014 they took over the organization. Robin only final stepped down from any input to the handicap in 2022! Such service!

Footnotes of March 1997 announces that having helped with the North Downs Run for a couple of years the Istead and Ifield committee was approached to take over the running of the race. 'It was decided to turn this down due to the amount of time that is required in staging the event' (Oh, how true that is!!!!)

A good turn out as always at the Harvel 5 (Date unknown)

In October 1997, the mob match with Gravesend Road Runners was started. Bizarrely the race compiler from Athletics Weekly phoned to ask about 'the grudge match with Paddock Wood'. Chinese whispers? If he only knew.

In February 2000 Istead Rise Community Centre increased the charges for the running club by about 400%, so a new base was sought. Meopham Leisure Centre and Cascades were both considered but the poor street lighting in Meopham resulted in Cascades becoming the new home.

In 2001 the Shorne Woods race was first run thanks largely to the efforts of Andrew Archer. 150 entrants were recorded. The initial distance of 4.5 miles was increased the following year to 5 miles.

Christmas 2002 saw the Boxing Day run commence from Camer Park and in 2004 the website was created.

In 2002 the club was asked to assume a greater input into the North Downs Run and June 2004 was the first time Istead had assumed sole responsibility for its organisation. How were they persuaded?

June 2002 also saw birthday celebrations being held at Luddesdown village hall and the Benidorm trip for the marathon and half marathon was started

In 2006 the Derek Horahan shield was introduced in his memory.

Whilst researching and writing this epistle it was quite scary how often issues were raised that recur today.

Why aren't there more people running cross country?

Anyone know where the Istead banner is after last Wednesday?

People haven't paid their subs on time.

So, in 20 years' time, in 2042, when Istead and Ifield Harriers is still going strong, and someone updates the history of the club for its first 50 years I wonder if these will still be relevant?

The onset of the Covid pandemic in 2020 and national lockdown caused a halt to many club activities, but the true Istead spirit showed through. Despite not being able to meet up in person, online competitions were organised to give everyone running on their own an interest and a focus. An evening Zoom get together was held regularly where many themes were discussed, both running and non-running related. Outside speakers and more experienced Istead members were invited to share their wisdom. There were several Zoom quizzes and online strength sessions were held (it's amazing what can be accomplished in your lounge with a broom handle, towels for battle towels and Chesney Hawkes 'The One and Only' playing in the background!). Once the restrictions were eased Istead runners were once again meeting regularly (within the rules) and the club went from strength to strength with a surge of new members.

November 2021 saw yet another major change for the club when it moved base to Old Gravesendians Rugby club and also use the track at the Guru Nanak Darbar Gurdwara.

And what of the future? A club is only as good as the membership, and it would seem that Istead will continue to be in safe hands and go from strength to strength.

This history was initially compiled in 2017 to commemorate the club's 25th anniversary and has been updated in 2022 its 30th year.

Thank you to Barry Bell who has an almost complete collection of Footnotes which were an invaluable source of information for this history, to Dominic Montford for help with club record information and to Peter Burton, Tania Yates, Susan Holland and Robin Manley for their good memories.
